DISNEY BLOCKBUSTER IS MIDWINTER TREAT

The S.A.B. is sponsoring a FREE family matinee performance of Walt Disney Studios popular film "THE LION KING" on Sunday, February

19 at 2:00 pm in the Reed Hall Auditorium. A talented crew of more than 600 artists, painters, designers and technicians worked more than three years in bringing this magnificent story to the screen. An all-star cast of voices including Mathew Broderick, Jeremy Irons, James Earl Jones and Whoopi Goldberg brings the heroic tale of Simba, a lion cub forced into exile by his evil uncle, to life with all the majesty and excitement of the classic Disney films. The film's music was written and performed by Grammy winner Elton John. All ages will enjoy this entertaining animated film. The film will also be shown on Monday, February 20 in the Student Lo

DISASTER DRILL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Red Cross is looking for 50-100 volunteers to take part in a simulated Disaster Drill scheduled for Saturday, March 11 from 9-1 at the Chapter House on South Collett St. in Lima. Volunteers will act as disaster victims in a variety of situations. You will be provided with a scenario but, you are encouraged to get involved with the role. Free lunch and refreshments will be provided. You can sign up in the Student Activities Office in GA066 until February 27. For more detailed information call Shirley Billings at 1-419-227-5121.

JAZZ EXPERT TO LECTURE TUESDAY

Dr. William "Ted" McDaniel, Jr., Chairperson of the Ohio State University at Columbus' Black Studies Department, will give a lecture-demonstration on JAZZ AND BLACK CULTURE IN AMERICA on Tuesday, February 14 at noon in Reed Hall Room 160. Dr. McDaniel also is a professor of Jazz Studies in the music department and directs the well known OSU Jazz Ensemble. Jazz is America's indigenous music and one of its greatest contributions to the world of music. McDaniels will trace the history of Jazz from its beginnings to today's avant garde, including Lima's own Joe Henderson. Be sure to hear this interesting and informative speaker.

FIRST "FUTURE IN TECHNOLOGIES" PROGRAM HERE THIS WEEK

The LTC Admissions Office will present the first "FUTURE IN TECHNOLOGIES" (F.I.T.) program on February 14 and 15 for high school juniors and seniors. F.I.T. is designed to highlight the different program areas provided by Lima Technical College while allowing students to experience a mini version of college life. About 200 young people will be on our campus. Be sure to say "hi" and be helpful to our young guests!
